Ocean Beach Featured in Exhibit

Ocean Beach and its diversity is the subject of a new exhibit presented by the Ocean Beach Historical Society. The exhibition, "The Different Worlds of Ocean Beach" by French photographer Alain Thomas, brings together familiar views of the community. Mr. Thomas has been coming to Ocean Beach for twenty years. His exhibition features photographs of ordinary objects viewed from surprisingly different perspectives. Although Mr. Thomas is currently working in the field of information technology, he has a degree in architecture and has done travel and art exhibit photography.

The "Different Worlds of Ocean Beach" are on exhibit at the Ocean Beach Historical Society gallery until August 13. Hours are Thursday - Monday, 2 - 9 pm. For further information, call (516) 983-8972.

P.S. A fee for the security: the exhibit can be viewed online at www.oceanbeachhistoricalsociety.com

Alain Thomas at the Ocean Beach Historical Society

On the subject of art and photography, Alain Thomas' photo exhibition at Ocean Beach Historical Society, "The Different Worlds of Ocean Beach", is worthy of note. If I were to categorize his photography in one word, I would have to call them still lives, but not the kind with a bowl of lemons and a flower vase at the window. Alain Thomas takes the mundane and makes us give it a second look, a bear knee, a single seashell against the sun, a brass door knob with a sloppy white paint job encroaching at the edge? How many door-knobs of Fire Island have I opened just like the one in that picture? Alain Thomas has an extended version of his exhibit on line at alain.thomas@stiview.com. It includes Ocean Beach pictures included in the exhibition, as well as photos from his native residence in Paris, France. The exhibition also included a laptop computer slide-show, which was absolutely delightful.

La naissance d'une dynastie

Marié à Catherine Amstutz, issue d'une famille anabaptiste de La-Grange-la-Dame (Terr. de Belfort), Frédéric Japy est père de seize enfants et crée en 1806 son affaire à ses trois fils aînés, formés auprès de lui.

L'aventure devient et restera familiale, tout comme le capital de l'entreprise, longtemps entre les mains des héritiers Japy.

L'inventeur et ses descendants développent d'ailleurs une véritable stratégie matrimoniale en nouant des alliances avec d'autres familles industrielles de la région, protestantes et libérales.

Le mariage est alors le moyen le plus commode pour sceller des relations d'affaires. Les gendres de Frédéric Japy bénéficient d'un savoir-faire et de capitaux grâce à la dot de leurs épouses.
